Splashy colors

Relax in light fabrics, bold hues

AS SOON AS THE WEATHER warms up, we begin to crave lighter clothes, brighter pieces and, of course, excursions to the nearest beach — Arizona's beach at Puerto Peñasco.

Known for fresh seafood, strong margaritas and miles of sand, this tiny Mexican seaside town — also known as Rocky Point — creates the ideal backdrop for this season's brilliant and breezy trends.

petal pusher

Transparency is a top trend this season — gauzy layers give off a weightless, super-romantic look. Avoid revealing too much, though. A simple tank under a blouse or a pretty slip under a dress will do.

Escada blouse, $990, and Tory Burch walking shorts, $165, both at Neiman Marcus, belt, $38 at Banana Republic, and initial charm bracelets, $18 each at Urban Outfitters.

ABOUT THE LOCATION

The midcentury modern pad in central Phoenix was designed in 1954 by architect Blaine Drake, an early apprentice of Frank Lloyd Wright. Owner and environmental designer Troy Bankord has filled it with an eclectic mix of art.

prints charming

Don't be so matchy-matchy with your swimsuit and cover-up. For a fresh look, mix a print with a pop of color.

On him: Los Angeles Sporting Club swim trunks, $39.95 at Unique on Central, and Theory button-down shirt, $145 at Neiman Marcus.

arm candy

Enamel bangles are an easy way to add polish and a pop of color this spring. Experiment with simple, sleek solids and Art Deco patterns.
